Area of Service: Bridgeport ISD, Denton ISD, Lake Dallas ISD, Lewisville ISD, Little Elm ISD, Northwest ISD

Program: The primary provider of research-based, holistic dropout prevention services. These services include academic tutoring, counseling, one-on-one mentoring, parental and family engagement, and individualized case management services for students at-risk in grades K-12 living in North Texas. Currently CISNT operates two program service models: daytime, dropout prevention case management, and ACE programs (Afterschool Centers on Education).

Dropout Prevention Case Management Campus Programs

Program: serve students each year in grades K-12 who are referred by their teacher, counselor, or principal as at-risk of dropping out of school. CIS Site Coordinators develop a case management plan to help students' at-risk get back on track towards academic success, graduation, and success in college and career. CISNT case management programs utilize a research-based, six-component service model which includes: supportive guidance and counseling; health and human services; parental and family involvement; career awareness; enrichment activities; and educational enhancements.

CIS Afterschool Centers on Education (ACE) programs

Program: provide and additional 15-19 hours of academic enrichment each week after school and in the summer. These programs work to improve academics, attendance, and behavior as well as increase promotion to the next grade level and improve graduation rates. CIS ACE programs provide homework completion and tutoring, enrichment groups, mentoring and team building, family and parental support activities, and college and workforce readiness activities that allow students to explore vocational and college opportunities.

How do we meet the challenges that no single organization can solve on their own?

COLLECTIVE IMPACT

"No single organization is responsible for any major social problem, nor can any single organization cure it. Complex problems can be solved only by cross-sector coalitions."

– Stanford Social Innovation Review

COMMON AGENDA

Moving coalitions towards the same goal through shared vision and joint action

SHARED MEASUREMENT

Tracking the same metrics to align efforts and understand true outcomes

MUTUALLY REINFORCING ACTIVITIES

Leveraging each organization's perspective and expertise to strengthen the coalition

CONTINUOUS COMMUNICATION

Ensuring trust and cooperation through consistent and open communication

BACKBONE SUPPORT

Uniting the coalition through coordination by a trusted backbone organization
